

PRIVACY POLICY

PRIVACY POLICY LEGAL, SECURITY & PRIVACY NOTICE

Affinity Business Partners Ltd is committed to excellent customer service, particularly those users of this website and we respect your rights to individual privacy in accordance with GDPR regulations.

Affinity Business Partners Ltd will only collect personal information from users of this website which you supply voluntarily e.g. information required for making an enquiry or placing an order.

Where you have given your consent, information may be used by Affinity Business Partners Ltd to inform you of news, special promotions and other offers that we feel may be of interest to you. We will retain your information securely for the use of Affinity Business Partners Ltd or related companies only and in line with legal requirements.

Affinity Business Partners Ltd respects the legal right under GDPR regulations for your information to be removed from any, and all Affinity Business Partners Ltd systems and should this be the case, you can advise us in writing at:

Database Department

Affinity Business Partners Ltd

Unit G4 Tanfield Lea Business Centre

Tanfield Lea Business Centre

Stanley

County Durham

DH8 9DB

Upon receipt of any request for personal information to be removed, the request will be actioned as soon as possible in line with legal requirements for the retention of personal and financial information.

Affinity Business Partners Ltd may monitor and collect the domains of visitors to this site. This information may be used for statistical purposes.

Certain links in this website will provide you with access to external websites, over which Affinity Business Partners Ltd exerts no influence. Affinity Business Partners Ltd is therefore not responsible for the content or security practices of these websites. Affinity Business Partners Ltd does not necessarily endorse any external website.